S. Vietnam Troop Losses Are Heavy

SAIGON (AP) — Hundreds of North Vietnamese troops launched counterattacks in the U Minh forest in the Mekong Delta and inflicted the heaviest losses on South Vietnamese forces in 3 1/2 months, allied spokesmen reported today.

Official reports said 47 South Vietnamese were killed and 97 were wounded in dawn to dusk fighting Thursday in the canal-laced area 145 miles southwest of Saigon.

The South Vietnamese Command said 100 North Vietnamese troops were killed, two captured and a large number of enemy weapons seized.

The command said the South Vietnamese losses were the heaviest since May 31 when North Vietnamese troops overran government positions at Snuol in eastern Cambodia and inflicted more than 500 casualties.

The North Vietnamese forces Thursday simultaneously attacked a South Vietnamese fire base in the forest, a reconnaissance company and an infantry company.

Hundreds of South Vietnamese reinforcements were ferried into the battle by U.S. helicopters. Rocket-firing helicopter gunships, jet fighter-bombers and artillery blasted North Vietnamese positions.

Life Is Like Circus in Which No Man Can Give All Performances

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Life is a three ring circus in which no man can give all the performances.

He is kept so busy working, raising children, paying off mortgages and improving his wife that he never gets around to doing a tenth of the things he might like to try if he had more time and freedom.

Ever sit down and write a list of things you haven't done but might like to try sometime? It can be self enlightening as well as amusing.

Here, for example, is a partial list by one man who publicly admits that he has never—

Sewed on a button.
Changed a car tire.
Ridden the rails.
Helped a policeman deliver a baby by flashlight.

Put out a forest fire.
Written a poison pen letter.
Drowned a litter of kittens.
Reached for a cigarette instead of a sweet.

Wet down a dry Martini.
Been invited to a lady's apartment to see her etchings.
Played Russian roulette with a double barreled shotgun.
Yelled "fire!" in a crowded theater.

President Apparently Has Decided to Speed Vietnam Withdrawals

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — President Nixon apparently has decided to speed up the withdrawal of combat troops from Vietnam.

This was indicated today when informed sources disclosed that American combat maneuver battalions, the Army's front line troops, will drop to less than 20 per cent of their peak strength in Vietnam by the end of November.

There are now 27 maneuver battalions in Vietnam, including infantry, armed and armored cavalry. Two-thirds of them are in the northernmost 1st Military Region that includes Da Nang.

During the next 2 1/2 months, seven more maneuver battalions will be cut, leaving 20 compared to a peak of 112 in April 1969.

Some U.S. field commanders say they anticipate a speedup in American troop cutbacks after November.

It is likely that the remaining maneuver battalions will be the first to go in a phased withdrawal, leaving only minimum security to protect U.S. air and logistics bases.

In anticipation of a quickened

U.S. withdrawal rate, South Vietnam is organizing a new infantry division for the 1st Military Region to fill the gap.

According to U.S. officials in Washington, the best estimate is that President Nixon may announce in November a substantial increase in the current withdrawal rate, perhaps amounting to virtually a total cutback in troops by next spring, or earlier.

President Nguyen Van Thieu says he does not envision the withdrawal of American ground forces until next summer or early fall at the earliest, and that South Vietnam will need American air support indefinitely.

A continuation of U.S. tactical fighter-bomber support would not necessarily mean keeping bases in Vietnam. Many of the strikes now are flown from bases in Thailand and carriers of the U.S. 7th Fleet in the Tonkin Gulf.

Two significant factors appear behind a faster withdrawal of U.S. troops than initially planned:

—North Vietnam's hardened stand on releasing American prisoners of war until all U.S. troops are pulled out of Vietnam. Sources in the Nixon administration say the President may decide to modify his opposition to the Viet Cong-North Vietnamese demand for a 1971 deadline for American withdrawal.

—A host of problems besetting the Army in Vietnam. This has been acknowledged by Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, the U.S. commander in Vietnam, who lists his five problems among U.S. forces as drugs, racism, antiwar feeling, morale and tension between GIs and the South Vietnamese.

That Alligator Was Hungry

PLANT CITY, Fla. (AP) — Wallace's usual diet of chicken legs and necks failed to satisfy his appetite.

So the 7-foot, 125-pound alligator took a taste of a circuit judge's hand.

"He didn't mean to bite me," said Judge James D. Bruton, who has been feeding the reptile raw chicken parts for the last year.

Bruton's after-court visits to the gator's home—a pond at a sewage treatment plant—usually are daily. But this week the judge missed chowtime three days in a row.

When Bruton finally returned to feed his friend, Wallace was hungry. He snatched the usual offering of chicken, then took a munch on Bruton's finger.

Edith Still Can Generate Tornadoes

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The one-time hurricane named Edith headed into Alabama today, downgraded to a tropical depression but still capable of generating tornadoes or flash floods.

The National Weather Service warned areas in the storm's path that Edith's rains carried a serious threat of flooding over the Appalachian region, from western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio southward.

Edith, which packed 100-mile-per-hour winds when she hit the Louisiana coast Thursday, left a littered wake of relatively minor damage dotted with spots of tornado destruction.

However, there were no known deaths or serious injuries, despite high tides along the Louisiana coast and numerous twisters in Louisiana and Mississippi.

House Votes New Tools for the EEOC

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has voted to give the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission new tools—federal court suits—to fight job discrimination, but not the broad powers sought for the agency by civil-rights groups.

Republicans and Southern Democrats joined forces Thursday to defeat 202 to 197 a bill that would have armed the agency with authority to issue its own orders barring discrimination.

Then the House passed 285 to 106 a milder, administration-backed substitute permitting the EEOC to bring federal suits against employers charged with discrimination in employment on the basis of race, sex, religion or national origin.

Individuals and the Justice Department now can file suits against job discrimination, but the EEOC does not have the power. It can only mediate and seek voluntary compliance.

The five-vote defeat of the stronger measure was a disappointment to civil-rights forces, who had been working for six years to strengthen the EEOC.

The fight to give the EEOC its own order-issuing powers now switches to the Senate, which last year passed a bill similar to the one rejected by the House Thursday.

Nixon Promises Some Post-freeze Restraints on Wages and Prices

By BILL NEIKIRK

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon says his post-freeze economic program will restrain wages and prices in major industries, a clue that he may be aiming toward selective rather than across-the-board inflation controls.

"It will have teeth in it," Nixon told newsmen at an impromptu news conference Thursday. "You cannot have jawboning that is effective without teeth."

But Nixon went no further on what will follow the 90-day wage-price-rent freeze on Nov. 13, in what is popularly known as Phase 2.

"Phase 2 will be strong," he said. "It will be effective. It will deal with the problem of wages and prices, and will restrain wages and prices in major industries."

Governors who met with Nixon reported he agreed with them that wage-price curbs to follow the freeze will remain in effect indefinitely.

If Nixon announced that Phase 2 would operate only for a fixed length of time, special interests might manipulate for their individual advantages, said Gov. Arch A. Moore Jr. of West Virginia, new chairman of the National Governor's Conference.

The post-freeze program is being shaped by the Cost of Living Council, headed by Treasury Secretary John B. Connally.

Nixon's news conference was the first indication that selective wage-price restraints, probably on large corporations, may be the key to his Phase 2 plan.

Moore also reported the President said a ceiling on interest rates would be considered for the post-freeze program. The freeze does not cover interest rates.

Nixon added that the 10-percent import surcharge will be maintained until a permanent solution is found for weaknesses in the international monetary system and the nation's balance-of-payments deficit.

Before the surcharge is lifted, he said, "we have to address ourselves to burden-sharing and we have to address ourselves also to trade restraints, including monetary barriers."

Domestically, Nixon said, Americans are supporting the wage-price freeze and "don't want to have a freeze followed by a thaw where you can get stuck in the mud, and we are not going to have that kind of thing."

The President repeated his prediction that 1971 will be a "good year" and 1972 a "very good year" for the economy, but he added a new wrinkle to

Reds Harden, Peace Talks at New Low

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — The three-year-old Vietnam peace talks are at a new low point following an abrupt and unexplained hardening of the Communist position.

North Vietnamese negotiator Xuan Thuy and his spokesman, Nguyen Thanh Le, dropped a bombshell into Thursday's 129th weekly session of the talks with the renunciation of all their recent hints of a readiness to compromise.

The Communist reversal surprised some optimistic Western politicians who took the hints at face value. One of these was Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., a presidential aspirant whose interpretation of the Communist position was repudiated by Thuy and Le.

Less surprised was the U.S. delegation, which had poured cold water all along on the suggestion that Hanoi and the Viet Cong might be prepared to drop some of their basic demands for the sake of peace.

It had appeared that the Communist negotiators had signaled outside the conference room that they were prepared to conclude and implement a separate peace with the United States.

Such a peace would have freed most American prisoners in return for an American commitment to withdraw every American soldier and adviser from South Vietnam by the end of this year. Negotiations on South Vietnam's political future would have continued, but President Nguyen Van Thieu would have remained in power and Hanoi and the Viet Cong would have pursued the war against his forces.

That deal, strongly backed only last Sunday by McGovern, is off. The Communist negotiators declared Thursday that they intend to release their prisoners only after the United States has removed Thieu from office in Saigon. Such American action would be contrary to the announced aims of the Nixon administration.

Senate Draft Vote Victory for Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate defeated today a move to reject a compromise draft extension and military pay raise bill already approved by the House.

The vote was 47 to 36.

The action, a key victory for President Nixon, came on a motion by Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., to table the long-stalled legislation. The President's draft authority expired on June 30.

Nixon, who made an eleven-hour concession on the bill's pay raise features to win over crucial votes, told a news conference Wednesday that scuttling the draft would jeopardize negotiations aimed at a mutual East-West arms reduction.

Despite today's vote, the months long Senate fight over the draft bill will go on. Vietnam war critics and foes of any draft law have vowed to filibuster against Senate approval of the measure.

Defeat of Mansfield's tabling amendment, however, appeared to kill any chance that his end-the-war amendment would be included in the legislation to extend the draft for two years.

The amendment, approved by the Senate in its original draft bill, called for the withdrawal of all U.S. military forces in Indochina in nine months provided American prisoners of war were released.

The House refused to accept it. And Senate-House conferees, in reaching a compromise, watered it down to call for an end to U.S. military operations in Indochina at the earliest practicable date.

Mansfield's tabling motion was intended as a first step toward sending the bill back to conference, with Senate conferees instructed to insist on fixing a deadline for American withdrawal.

Mansfield told newsmen in advance of the vote that if the tabling motion were rejected, he would reoffer his end-the-war amendment to the military procurement bill, coming up next in the Senate, or to some other appropriate measure.

The Mansfield amendment, strongly opposed by President Nixon, has been a key issue in the lengthy Senate battle over the draft bill.

Blames Roads for Lack of Industry

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Poor highways were blamed Thursday for a lack of industrialization in South Arkansas.

Louis Hurley of El Dorado, a member of the commission for the Department of Industrial Development, said that South Arkansas was being overlooked by industry because of shortcomings in the state's transportation system.

Dan Roebuck, director of the department, said his agency was putting a priority on locating new plants in South Arkansas, but industry has not been very interested.

"Give me a four-lane highway anywhere and I will guarantee you a major industry," Roebuck said.

Will Lessen Accidental War Danger

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union will announce late next week two agreements aimed at lessening the danger of accidental war, sources say.

The agreements are to be signed by Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko at the end of this month, the sources said.

One of the agreements is to modernize the White House-Kremlin hotline by using satellite communications. The other provides for quick consultation in case of a nuclear accident, so one side will not conclude mistakenly that it is under attack from the other.

The accords, a side affair to the U.S.-Soviet strategic arms limitation talks (SALT), are not major in themselves but do fit into a widening pattern of tension-easing negotiations between the two big powers on a variety of issues.

Another current example is the meeting slated in Moscow in October between high U.S. and Soviet navy officials on ways to cut down collisions and other incidents between their fleets at sea.

The basic aim of the SALT parley is to curb the super-power arms race. Negotiators have been working since 1969 on proposals for mutual limits on antiballistic missiles and offensive nuclear-delivery systems.

The hotline talks among experts accompanying the SALT delegations began last spring. The special Moscow-Washington communications link was set up in 1963 after the United States and the Soviet Union verged on nuclear war over Soviet shipment of missiles to Cuba.

Since then, long-distance international communications have been revolutionized by new technology of 23,000-mile-high satellites which relay electronic signals around the world. The present hotline still depends mainly on transatlantic submarine cables and land lines across Europe.

Meanwhile, the main SALT talks are continuing at Helsinki with prospects for an agreement this fall still uncertain. Washington and Moscow announced last May they will push for an ABM agreement this year plus measures to limit offensive weapons.

"As a result of the new policy, I believe that the last quarter of 1971 will be better than I had originally thought it might be. Rather than being good, it will be considerably better than good."

But, he said, his prediction for 1972 is based on the assumption that Congress will approve his tax program—the investment tax credit, repeal of the auto excise tax, and some tax relief for individuals.

Nixon said a published story attributed to Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans that the administration would key the Phase 2 program to productivity "represented what is a strongly felt view primarily in the business community."

"It does not represent that we have foreclosed the matter as far as our own thinking is concerned," he added.

Stans denied making a statement that Nixon had made any decisions on Phase 2.

Packed House Sees Desdemona in the Nude

LONDON (AP) — Actress Sarah Stephenson slipped off her nightgown before a packed theater audience Thursday night in the first production of Shakespeare's "Othello" featuring Desdemona in the nude.

The attractive, 24-year-old blonde drew applause from the first night fans and some praise from London critics.

Miss Stephenson had taken over the role during rehearsals at the Mermaid Theater after the original Desdemona refused to appear naked.

She stripped for the final scene of her murder by Othello, then climbed into bed between black satin sheets. One of the sheets was wrapped around her as she died in Othello's arms, and she wore it when she took her final bow to the audience.

Michael Billington of the Times called the production "lamentably crude and rough edged" but said the nude scene was fine.

"It reminds us that Desdemona is no bloodless moppet but a wilful, headstrong, highly sexed girl."

ROCKET'S GLARE recalls a warlike past of Ehrenbreitstein Castle, ancient fortress along Germany's Rhine River. But now the idea is to entertain tourists, not repel invaders, as an 11-mile stretch of the storied river is illuminated for a special "Rhine in Flames" festival.

Shootout Due to Mistaken Identity

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — The feud between two Miller County families that erupted into a shootout Tuesday night apparently began with a case of mistaken identity.

Two persons were killed and two were wounded. Two other persons were being held Thursday in the Miller County Jail.

Dead are Carl Reneau, 35, and Floyd Ward, 45, both of the Doddridge community, which is about 20 miles south of Texarkana.

Sheriff Leslie Greer said the dispute began last week when Daniel Boone Ward, brother of the slain Ward, threatened a member of the Reneau family with a shotgun. Greer said that the member of the Reneau family apparently had been mistaken for Mack Dunlap of Doddridge, a member of the school board.

Greer said the Wards had been involved in a dispute with the school board for some time over the district's free-lunch program.

Greer said that Daniel Boone Ward also had threatened other school officials. He was arrested Sept. 10 and charged with assault with intent to kill, Greer said.

While Ward was in jail, Greer said, his wife Barbara and brother, Floyd Ward, went with three other members of the family to a general store owned by Reneau.

Greer said the shooting apparently began when Mrs. Reneau ordered Mrs. Ward out of the store.

Mrs. Reneau and Mrs. Ward remained hospitalized today.

Insurance Rate Hike Not Allowed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Insurance Commissioner A. Gene Sykes said Thursday that a rate increase requested for about two-thirds of the homeowners insurance policies written in Arkansas had been denied.

The request was for an automatic $50 flat deductible to all perils, exclusion of full replacement coverage for roof coverings and an actual premium level increase of 7.7 per cent.

Sykes said the total effect of the actual premium increase and the rate equivalent of the deductible and roof covering exclusion would have been a rate increase of about 17 per cent.

The commissioner said the increase was not justified by the statistical data furnished by the Insurance Service Office.

The ISO had filed for the increase last April.

Rockefeller Believes Prison Hostages Were Caught in Crossfire

By BERNARD COHEN

Associated Press Writer

ATTICA, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says he believes the "hostages who died of gun wounds were caught in a crossfire" when authorities put down the rebellion at Attica State Prison.

"The prisoners didn't have guns," Rockefeller added at a news conference in Albany on Thursday.

The crossfire resulted, he said, when attacking police forces converged from four sides on a prison yard held by the convicts.

Comfortable Weather for Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Comfortable weather is expected in Arkansas through the weekend.

The forecast calls for fair to partly cloudy skies with cooler temperatures.

Showers or thundershowers are forecast today and tonight, but little precipitation is expected Saturday.

The center of a large cool air mass was still over Montana and southwest Canada this morning and its slow movement is expected to keep temperatures well below normal in Arkansas for the next several days.

Highs Thursday ranged from the mid to high 70s in the north to the mid to high 80s in the southwest. Highs today should be in the mid 70s to low 80s with highs Saturday mostly in the 70s.

Lows tonight should be in the mid 50s north portion to low 60s south portion.

Overnight lows include Fayetteville 60, Harrison 59, Jonesboro 65, Pine Bluff 66, Texarkana 63, El Dorado 60, Memphis 64, Little Rock 66 and Fort Smith 65.

Rainfall reports for the 24-hour period ended at 7 a.m. include a trace at El Dorado and Harrison, .02 at Fayetteville, .07 at Fort Smith and .96 at Memphis.

President's Conference at Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's Thursday news conference at a glance:

The new economic plan—Phase 2 will restrain wages and prices in major industries and will have teeth in it. "You cannot have jawboning that is effective without teeth."

Draft—Defeat of the draft-extension bill would be one of the most irresponsible acts on the part of the Senate the President could possibly think of, would seriously jeopardize U.S. peace initiatives around the world and unquestionably would make this country the second strongest.

China-U.N.—The United States will vote for admission of Communist China to the U.N., which means obtaining a Security Council seat, and will vote against expulsion of the Nationalist Chinese Republic.

Trip to Peking—Plans for the conference with Premier Chou En-lai are going forward on schedule but it would not be helpful now to discuss a date or agenda.

Attica Prison—The President said he imagined the slaughter there was the most painful, excruciating experience that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in New York has had. Nixon said when a man is in a hard place and makes a hard decision he backs him up and doesn't second-guess him—and still backs him the next day when other returns come in.

Black Candidate—Asked about a statement by Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, that he doubted a presidential candidate could be elected with a black running mate, Nixon said he believes it is a libel to suggest the American people would vote against a man because of his race, religion or color.

Nixon Sees Productive China Trip

By FRANK CORMIER

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon says secret talks on his forthcoming trip to mainland China are "going very well" and he sees promise of a productive session in Peking.

Holding an unannounced news conference in his Oval Office Thursday, Nixon told reporters neither he nor Premier Chou En-lai is approaching the historic confrontation with "naïve, sentimental" ideas.

The President, recognizing ideological differences and isolation of the two countries from each other for nearly a quarter century, said: "We have agreed to discuss the differences. That is all that has been agreed. There are no other conditions."

Nixon, apart from saying arrangements are going well, was cagey about acknowledging that American and mainland Chinese representatives are involved in planning his trip. He spoke only of talks about timing and agenda "that may be under consideration."

Another White House source said the American-Chinese arrangements are now being worked out. And while no one at the White House would say, there has been increasing speculation that Nixon will journey to Peking this year.

The President's 38-minute news conference ranged over about a dozen topics, foreign and domestic, and included these highlights:

—The 90-day wage-price freeze will be followed by "a strong, effective follow-on program" that will seek to restrain labor and management in major industries and "vitaly important, it will have teeth in it."

—U.S. policies in Vietnam will be unaffected by the scheduled Oct. 3 election in which President Nguyen Van Thieu is unopposed. While Nixon said the United States would have preferred a contested balloting, it must "keep its eye on the main objective and that is to end the American involvement just as soon as that is consistent with our overall goals, which is a South Vietnam able to defend itself against a Communist takeover and which includes, from our standpoint, our primary interest in obtaining the release of our POWs."

Nixon acknowledged a U.S. role in the 1963 assassination of South Vietnamese President Ngo Dinh Diem who died in a military takeover of the Saigon government.

"I would remind all concerned," Nixon said, "that the way we got into Vietnam was through overthrowing Diem and the complicity in the murder of Diem, and the way to get out of Vietnam in my opinion is not to overthrow Thieu"

Nixon promised only that details of his trip "will be announced at an appropriate time."

Asked if he has an idea in his own mind when he might go to Peking, Nixon replied:

"That is a mutual decision, and we are working it out in a satisfactory way."

KARL S. KING

SAN ANTONIO—Airman Karl S. King, son of Mrs. Marguerite W. King, 321 W. Walnut St., Prescott, Ark., has received his first U.S. Air Force duty assignment after completing basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. The airman has been assigned to a unit of the Strategic Air Command at Barksdale AFB, La., for training and duty as a musician. Airman King, a 1969 graduate of Prescott High School, attended Southern State College, Magnolia, Ark.

He said Phase 2 would be strong and effective, but did not further elaborate on what he has planned for the period after the current wage-price freeze expires Nov. 13.

SAIGON (AP) — Informed sources indicate that President Nixon has decided to speed the withdrawal rate of combat troops from Vietnam, apparently because of internal problems besetting the Army and in hopes of speeding the return of American POWs held by the Communists.

In Paris, however, the North Vietnamese have adopted an abrupt and unexpected hard-line stand on their negotiating position, saying they are unwilling to bargain for the release of POWs solely in return for U.S. withdrawal.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A last-minute White House concession on a military pay raise and a new senator may have saved the deadlocked draft-extension bill from immediate defeat in the Senate.

President Nixon reportedly has agreed to support an additional $300 million for the pay hike, thus placating some critics of the bill; and Republican Rep. Robert T. Stafford was hastily sworn into the Senate as a replacement for the late Winston L. Prouty, adding another vote to the administration side.

War foes, however, have not given up on their challenge to the bill.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, in a surprise news conference Thursday, said secret talks on his forthcoming trip to Red China are "going very well" and he sees promise of a productive session in Peking.

The President also touched on the admission of Red China to the United Nations, the economy, Vietnam policy, the draft and the recent inmates' revolt at Attica State Prison in New York.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon told newsmen Thursday his post-freeze economic program will restrain wages and prices in major industries, indicating that he may be aiming for selective rather than across-the-board inflation controls.

He said Phase 2 would be strong and effective, but did not further elaborate on what he has planned for the period after the current wage-price freeze expires Nov. 13.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Fantasy of a special masculine brand pretty much takes over television on Thursday evenings.

CBS's new "Bearcats" has a couple of happy-go-lucky adventurers roaring around in a 1914 Stutz Bearcat—in direct competition with ABC's returning "Alias Smith and Jones," a couple of happy-go-lucky adventurers on circa 1870 horses.

On NBC a bit later there is "Nichols," a story about a reluctant ruler sheriff—also set in the early 20th century—who would rather run than fight.

His ABC competition is "Longstreet," a blind insurance investigator who in the first show walloped an evil dock boss—in a long fight scene.

"Bearcats" lands somewhere between the burlesque of "Wild, Wild West" and "Route 66" in mood. The initial program had our heroes tracking down a gang of bank robbers, who were using a World War I tank. Obviously, one doesn't put a tank out of action without a lot of explosives, so the climax was as noisy as it was predictable. Rod Taylor, once the slim investigator of "Hong Kong," now is a beefy trouble shooter. His younger helper is Dennis Cole.

"Nichols" has James Garner in the title role, its biggest plus. His part is designed to remind of his old "Maverick" character but without the charm. The first program lacked pace and wit, and the emphasis was on rough comedy.

Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Elos E. Stanley will be honored with a reception Sunday, October 3, on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. The complimentary affair will be held from two until five o'clock at their home 202 Calhoun Street,

MR. and MRS. E. E. STANLEY

Stamps, Ark. All friends and relatives are invited to attend. Hosting the reception will be the couple's daughters, Mrs. B. R. Statser of Irving, Texas, Mrs. E. L. Runnels of Lafayette, La., and a grand daughter, Mrs. H. D. Brock of Morgan City, La.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Stanley were born near Patmos, Ark. They were married in Washington, Ark., when it was the county seat of Hempstead County. After farming a year they went to the Smackover Oil Field where Elos was employed by Humble Oil Co.

This was the beginning of their oil field days which lasted over 42 years. At the very beginning Elos earned the famous nickname "DIAGO", which he is still known by. They made their home in many different towns in Ark. and La. Everywhere they moved they made new friends and still recall many of the incidents that have happened over the years. Each one is a long story about a special person and event, which Diago delights in retelling. He has a flair for living and enjoying people. Since retiring in 1966 they have visited many of the old places and friends.

The Stanleys are members of the First Baptist Church and Mr. Stanley is a Past Master of the Masonic Lodge. He still attends meetings and helps confer Masonic Degrees when called on.

The house party will include five generations; mother of the honoree, Mrs. E. E. Jackson and great-grand children Michelle and David Brock of Lafayette.

Mrs. E. I. Pullig, Mrs. T. R. Sims, Mrs. Roy Tipton, and Mrs. Hubert Baker will be assisting in the reception.

Kids Love Peanut-Butter Cookies

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor

A wise shopper we know has been delving into the cost of peanut butter. Here's what she tells us:

"In a period of rocketing food prices, it's good to see that a basic nutritious staple like peanut butter is holding the price line favorably. Large-size jars are now available: 18 ounces, 28 ounces, 3 pounds and some stores even carry a 5-pound size. A smart shopper has the best advantage when she chooses the largest size she can use for her family, because the price per pound is significantly reduced as the size increases. If a shopper with a large family can use a 3- or 5-pound size, she will be paying less per pound than 10 years ago, when large-size jars were not generally available."

No matter what size jar you buy you may want to make some peanut-butter cookies — so popular with both youngsters and grownups. So here's the best peanut-butter cookie recipe we've tried recently. Semi-sweet chocolate pieces and salted Spanish peanuts are added and help to make this cookie a delight.

BEST PEANUT-BUTTER COOKIES

3/4 cup unsifted flour, stir to aerate before measuring
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 cup (1/4-pound stick) butter or margarine
1/2 cup creamy or chunky peanut butter
1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1 large egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup salted Spanish peanuts, red skins on
1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces
On wax paper thoroughly stir together the flour and baking soda
In a medium mixing bowl cream butter and peanut butter, beat in one ingredient at a time, the brown sugar, granulated sugar, egg and vanilla. Add flour mixture, with a spoon mix well. Stir in peanuts and chocolate pieces.

Drop by heaping teaspoonfuls, about 2 inches apart, onto ungreased cookie sheets. Press down with floured fork making criss-cross pattern; re-flour fork for each cookie. (Marking will not show after baking.)
Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until lightly browned — 10 minutes. Let cookies stand on pan about 1 minute, then with a wide metal spatula remove to wire racks to cool. Store in a tightly covered tin box.
Makes 4 dozen 2-inch cookies.

Detergent Cure Worse Than Disease

By MIKE DOAN

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Finding the cure worse than the disease, the government reluctantly has advised housewives to use phosphate detergents instead of nonpolluting substitutes.

Federal officials still say phosphates are a major water pollutant because they lead to a depletion of the oxygen supply in water.

But newly developed substitutes "are highly caustic and clearly constitute a health hazard, which phosphates do not," Surgeon General Jesse L. Steinfeld said Wednesday.

"My advice to the housewife," he said, "would be to use a phosphate detergent. It is safe for the household."

Some of the nonphosphates on the market, he said, contain ingredients that, if swallowed, inhaled or introduced into the eyes, might injure humans, particularly children.

Steinfeld read the joint statement at a news conference with William D. Ruckelshaus, administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, and Dr. Charles C. Edwards, Food and Drug Administration commissioner.

Two years ago the Federal Water Quality Administration called for removing phosphates from detergents to combat water pollution.

The detergent industry turned to substitutes, and some cities banned the use of phosphate detergents.

Ruckelshaus urged the cities Wednesday to reconsider their phosphate bans and said the government will help finance removal of phosphates at sewage plants, at a cost of perhaps $500 million.

He said one of the first proposed phosphate substitutes, called nitrilotriacetic acid—NTA—still should not be used in manufacturing detergents.

The industry had asked the government to reconsider its position that the acid may have an adverse effect on animals and in some cases may have produced birth defects.

The joint statement Wednesday said NTA should not be used "because of unresolved questions concerning its possible long-term effects on health and the environment."

Ninety per cent of detergents contain phosphates but none is made with NTA.

Fur 'Fur' Better or 'Fur' Worse

"Fur" all we know, a tweed coat trimmed with a brown moutonlike fur is the best way to go anywhere. Miss Portrait does it in a pink and brown wool tweed (left) and cuts it off below the boot top. Miss Gallery's quilted brushed-denim, double-breasted midi coat (right) has a denimlike Sherpa collar and warm quilted lining. Designer Henry Rutman pulls it in nice and close with a three-quarter self-belt.

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Believe it or not there used to be a market called the "fur trim" market. This was not part of the regular fur market located on Seventh Avenue around 30th Street in New York. Instead, it was nestled in buildings on some of the side streets in the upper '30s between Broadway and Eighth Avenue. This so-called market consisted of manufacturers who turned out fur-trimmed coats, suits and nothing else. The salesmen, often the owners of the companies, were of the over-50, cigar-smoking ilk.

In those days a fur-trimmed coat started out as a luxury and then became a necessity. This category boomed for years at both retail and wholesale levels. The styling remained exactly the same year after year. These coats didn't keep up with the fashion times and soon were referred to as "mama" coats by those in the business. They were the cold weather security blankets of little old ladies. It was a classic example of how a really profitable and going business fell to pieces.

Okay for that. Now fur-trimmed coats are as contemporary as tomorrow because they are being created by designers who create for coat manufacturers who, in turn, are willing to manufacture whatever they think people want. Fur trims to day may be army surplus coats next week. But they're keeping up with the times, which is the name of the game.

Two leading manufacturers who have included fur-trimmed coats in their fall collections are Miss Gallery and Miss Portrait. Their fur-trimmed coats are so expertly executed that it's hard to tell which came first—the idea for the coat or the fur trim. Fur is combined with all kinds of unorthodox fabrics such as quilting and colorful tweeds.

Where to wear fur-trimmed coats has changed from bygone years. The term "dress-up" doesn't mean what it used to. Fur-trimmed coats which were worn by suburban mothers who chauffeured their children to school and scout meetings aren't exactly what these times have in mind, either.

Their mid-length fur-trimmed coats go "further." They go with pants, over dresses and skirts. They go to the nearest places and to the "furthest." And wherever they go they create a fashion furor.

Bobkittens Bounce Ashdown

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

What can you say about the Hope Bobkittens defense after last night's showing against the Ashdown Panther Cubs? They are just plain tough!

While the offense scored 34 points, it was the defense who shined the most, forcing Ashdown into minus yards rushing and only giving up 42 yards through the air.

The Kittens 34-0 shutout win marks their record now at 1-0-1 with next week's game at home against Arkadelphia, always a big rivalry.

Receiving the opening kickoff, the Bobkittens started at the Ashdown 48 yard line, but three plays later punted to the Panthers 20 yard line. Less than a minute later the ball had again exchanged hands with Hope in possession.

On the first play halfback Larry Johnson broke in the clear from 30 yards out and seemingly went all the way for a quick score, but a penalty flag had gone down, thus canceling the score. The best the Kittens could do was get back to the 34, but four plays later had it again.

Hope was not to be denied this time and using the running of Johnson and Jimmy Howard, scored on seven plays with Johnson carrying the final yard to paydirt with 5:01 left in the half. Jud Martindale's perfect PAT kick gave Hope a 7-0 lead.

With Ashdown taking the kickoff and starting from their own 38 yard line, the Panthers could go no way but backwards and after Rusty Cole, Jim Rhodes, Tim Hart, and Clay O'Steen smothered the Panther quarterback twice for losses, Ashdown punted.

With the clock showing 2:35 left in the half, Hope started from their own 47 yard line. On first down Johnson lost two yards back to the Hope 45, before picking his hole out between right guard and right tackle and rambling 55 yards for the second Bobkitten touchdown, less than three minutes after the first. Again Martindale put the extra point kick through the uprights and Hope held a 14-0 lead with 1:49 left in the half.

Ashdown took the ensuing kickoff and marched to the Hope 37 with the aid of two passes before two consecutive losses totaling 19 yards ending the first half with Hope in command, 14-0.

For the duration of the third quarter, neither team scored, although at the end Hope was driving and had moved to the Panther four yard line on the running of Johnson and Martindale.

As the fourth quarter started, so did the fireworks—again.

On fourth and one at the Ashdown four, Johnson picked up the first down to the two and a play later Howard slashed up the middle for the score with 7:32 left in the game. Martindale's kick put the scoreboard reading—Hope 21, Ashdown 0.

On the first play of the Panthers next possession after the kickoff, Johnson, playing in the offensive secondary, picked off a pass at the Panther 35 and outran everyone to the end zone for the fourth touchdown of the night—and all for Hope. Although Martindale's fourth extra point attempt was blocked, the Kittens were in perfect shape, leading 27-0 with only 7:14 left in the game.

And the way the defense was playing it would take Ashdown a long time to even get close to the goal line.

Three plays later, with 5:38 showing, practically half of the defensive forward wall recovered a fumble at the Panther 32 yard line.

Back on offense again, Hope used the running of Richard Wilson and Tim Boyd to get the final tally of the night, with Wilson scoring from two yards out through the middle. This time Martindale again sailed the extra point true and Hope had their final score of 34-0, with 3:02 remaining. And that was the old ballgame.

Hog Victory Could Work Two Ways

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Oklahoma State's 26-7 victory over Mississippi State last week may work two ways.

It should give the Cowboys confidence and it should keep sixth-ranked Arkansas from being complacent when the two teams meet Saturday night at Little Rock.

"I'm glad they won their opener," said Frank Broyles whose Razorbacks opened with a 51-20 victory over California.

"Our opener was so pleasing ... and such a big relief."

"I'm hoping the students haven't been patting us on the back too much," Broyles said. "We're all human and we like to hear that kind of stuff, but it doesn't help us get ready for the next game. I think looking at the film of Oklahoma State's game will keep us from getting overconfident."

"Our main concern is not fooling ourselves," Broyles said. "The score last week is indicative of one game and that one game only."

Broyles said preparing defensively for OSU was just the opposite of getting ready for California.

"Oklahoma State runs out of about 20 formations where California ran out of only one," he said. "Oklahoma State lines up all over the field. They did a tremendous job of getting in the formations that made Mississippi State miss them."

Broyles says Tony Pounds, a senior, and Brent Blackman, a sophomore, are outstanding quarterbacks.

"Blackman likes to run the ball more than Pounds," Broyles said. "He's just as quick as he can be. He'll just sprint out and take off."

Flanker Dick Graham is the Cowboys' big play artist. Against Mississippi State, he caught five passes for 140 yards and a touchdown and also returned a punt 81 yards for a score.

"Graham has such quickness and he's such a competitor," Broyles said. "He's made as many big plays in the last two years as any player I know. Every week I'd pick up the paper and read where he caught a pass or returned a kick 70, 80, 90 or 100 yards."

Broyles also praised OSU's sophomore noseman, Barry Price, who Broyles said "disrupted many of Mississippi State's plays before they ever got started."

Broyles said, however, that the Cowboys did not beat the Bulldogs because of the performance of a select few.

"They look solid, offensively and defensively," he said.

Some Fights Still on in American

By BRUCE LOWITT

Associated Press Sports Writer

So what? It's that time in the American League.

One divisional race is already over and the other is all but decided.

So while the season plays itself out, most fans look ahead to the playoffs and the World Series.

But there are still plenty of squabbles going on—fights to gain at least a small share of the post-season money and to avoid the ignominy of a last-place finish.

Like the Cleveland Indians, for example. They're battling with Washington to stay out of the East Division cellar. A victory Thursday night would have moved the Tribe within half a game of the fifth-place Senators—but after taking several leads against Boston, the Indians wound up on the short end of a 10-7 final score.

Or the California Angels. By grabbing third place in the West, they'll get a share of the World Series money. They grabbed third with a 2-1 victory over Kansas City—and they're eyeing the second-place Royals.

But California's hold on third is precarious at best. The Chicago White Sox and Minnesota Twins are only half a game further back.

In other American League games, Minnesota beat Milwaukee 7-3, Detroit defeated Washington 3-1 and Baltimore belted the New York Yankees 6-2. The Western Division champion Oakland A's and Chicago were idle.

Indians Manager Johnny Ligon, who took over July 30 when Alvin Dark was fired and has spent all but one day at the bottom of the heap since then, was succinct when asked if his team is just playing out the season.

"I don't think anybody wants to finish last in anything," he snapped. "We're trying damned hard to get out of the cellar!"

Manager Eddie Kasko, whose Red Sox won't third, a slim two games ahead of the Yankees, commented: "Naturally we want to win as many games as we can and finish as high as possible. But the most important thing to me now is to see what these kids can do and the only way I can do that is by letting them play."

"The veterans had their chance to get us up there and now I'm going to let the kids do it," Kasko said.

Mike Fiori's two-run, tie-breaking double ignited the three-run eighth inning that carried the Red Sox past Cleveland. Rick Miller, Joe Lahoud and Rico Petrelli had Boston home runs and Vada Pinson, Ray Fosse and Ted Uhlaender had them for the Tribe.

"I don't really know how many games we've got left," Angels Manager Lefty Phillips said. "We're going out there every day and trying to win. But we have to have a whole lot of help to get second place." California has 12 to go and trails Kansas City by 8½ games.

Said Clyde Wright, who pitched six no-hit innings and finished with a three-hitter to beat the Royals: "Well, you've got to be optimistic. We've got a bunch of guys who aren't going to quit."

The Angels scored in the fourth on singles by Mickey Rivers, Jim Fregosi and Billy Parker and Wright drove in what proved to be the winning run one inning later with a double play grounder.

A four-run seventh inning highlighted by Cesar Tovar's two-run single carried the Twins past the Brewers but the big blow in the game was Harmon Killebrew's 25th homer of the season.

It was also the 512th of his career, tying him with Ernie Banks and Eddie Mathews for sixth place on the all-time list. Pitcher Les Cain triggered the Tigers' winning rally against Washington, singling in the fifth, moving to third on Dick McAuliffe's double and scoring on Aurelio Rodriguez's sacrifice fly before McAuliffe came home on Norm Cash's single.

Cain allowed only three hits, including Jeff Burroughs' second-inning homer, before being relieved when his arm stiffened in the seventh.

The Orioles, retaining their eight-game East Division lead over the Tigers, reduced to

The Birds, sporting bright orange-and-black home uniforms for the first time, did it against the Yanks on Brooks' Robinson's eighth-inning grand slam home run following singles by Paul Blair and Frank Robinson around Dave Johnson's walk.

Frank Robinson and Andy Etchebarren also homered for the Orioles after New York had taken a 2-0 first-inning lead on run-scoring singles by Bobby Murcer and Ron Blomberg.

Bobcats Go to Sheridan Tonight

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Once again the Hope Bobcats face another big task in meeting the Sheridan Yellowjackets tonight on their home field.

Sheridan is vastly improved from last year and with a lot of depth. After beating Dollarway and then losing narrowly to Lakeside last week, the Yellowjackets are sitting on the same 1-1 mark as the Bobcats, with revenge of last year heavily on their minds.

Both teams will undoubtedly be up for the game, each wanting to win and gain more confidence before again entering district competition and besides, no one likes defeat.

Once again this writer predicts a Bobcat victory. With the numbers in the right position now, I predict a 21-7 win for Hope and victory number two.

The game will start early at 7:30 p.m. and for those who can't make it to Sheridan for the game, Mike Huckabee will broadcast live from the Yellowjackets' stadium on KXAR.

Hogs Flying to Little Rock Today

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)

— The Arkansas Razorbacks were to fly to Little Rock this afternoon to begin final preparations for Saturday's game with Oklahoma State University.

Coach Frank Broyles said that victory following a light workout that he was apprehensive about his players' attitude toward the OSU game.

"They're still thinking about that victory last week over California," said Broyles. "They've got it in the back of their minds and they'd better get it out."

The Porkers defeated the Bears 51-20 last week in Little Rock.

Killebrew Moves Up a Notch

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Harmon Killebrew moved up another notch on the all-time home run list Thursday night, but insisted his only goal for the next few years is to stay healthy.

Killebrew, the 35-year-old slugging first baseman for the Minnesota Twins, slammed his 25th home run of the year and 512th of his career to help his club to a 7-3 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers.

With that home run, Killebrew tied Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs and Eddie Mathews, now an Atlanta Braves coach, on the all-time home run list.

Next for him is the mark of 521 by Ted Williams, the former Boston star. Killebrew passed up Mel Ott's mark of 511 with his latest homer.

"I don't have any goals," said Killebrew. "I just want to try and stay healthy and hit as many home runs as I can. I won't say that I'll play five years of anything. Right now, I'm not looking past next season."

Injuries have hurt the Minnesota slugger this year in his bid to move up the all-time home run ladder. He suffered a

Having Fun at Expense of Dodgers

By KEN RAPPOPORT
"We haven't had much fun all year," said Manager Preston Gomez of the San Diego Padres.

Well, his team is finally getting some laughs at the expense of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Padres, last in the National League West with the worst record in baseball, beat Los Angeles 4-1 Thursday night and halted the Dodgers' drive toward the top of the division.

The loss prevented Los Angeles from moving into a tie with San Francisco after the slumping Giants lost 8-1 earlier in the day to the Cincinnati Reds.

"The only thing we can do is knock off some of the contenders," said Gomez, whose Padres also won the opener of the two-game set at Dodger Stadium Wednesday night. "At least we can get some people talking about the Padres."

The Padres not only had the Dodgers talking about them, but also talking to themselves. "You've got to help yourself to get the breaks," said a disappointed Walt Alton, the Dodger manager. "We just haven't been helping ourselves the last two games."

While the Giants maintained a one-game lead despite themselves in the West, the Pittsburgh Pirates neared an easy clinching in the East by stopping second-place St. Louis 6-1. The Pirates pushed their lead to 9½ games over the Cardinals and any combination of three Pittsburgh victories or three St. Louis defeats will cinch the pennant.

In the other National League games, the Chicago Cubs nipped the New York Mets 1-0; and the Montreal Expos stopped the Philadelphia Phillies 6-2.

Despite beating the Dodgers twice in two nights, Gomez still likes their chances for the division pennant.

"They've got the good pitching, the bench, and most important, they've got a great manager," said Gomez. "I've watched Alton and he's as cool and as calm as you can be. Another guy might be running up and down the bench."

Fred Norman, a former Dodger who pitched a seven-hitter for San Diego, called the victory "the biggest of my career."

He had lost his first four decisions to his former teammates.

"It's the best I've ever seen Norman pitch," said Alton.

Nate Colbert, Larry Stahl and John Jeter poked home runs for the winners.

Cincinnati's Ross Grimsley extended San Francisco's September slide with a three-hitter as the Reds cut down the Giants. It was San Francisco's 11th loss in 12 games, a nose-dive which shaved most of its 8½-game lead in two weeks.

George Foster, traded by San Francisco to Cincinnati earlier this year, crashed a grand slam home run as the Reds sealed the victory with a five-run eighth inning.

A combined seven-hitter by Luke Walker and Ramon Hernandez led Pittsburgh over St. Louis. The Pirates scored two runs in the third and two in the fourth, all off Cardinal starter Jerry Reuss.

Hernandez replaced Walker in the sixth with the bases loaded and one out and retired the side with one run scoring on Lou Brock's infield out. He didn't allow a hit in 2 2-3 innings of relief.

"I'll push success," said Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtagh, speaking of his hot-handed relief artist. "If I've got somebody hot going, I'll find somewhere for him."

Juan Pizarro pitched a six-hitter and drove in the game's only run with a homer as Chicago beat New York; Steve Renko stopped Philadelphia on five hits for Montreal and Sonny Jackson stroked a tie-breaking single in the eighth for Atlanta.

State Can't Live on Past Performance

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) —

Arkansas State University Coach Bill Davidson knows the Indians can't live on past accomplishments. So do the players.

"In the back of their minds they honestly believe that what happened last year is gone," Davidson said. "The season starts Saturday night at Wichita as far as what they must do again."

ASU, unbeaten in almost two years, opens its season against Wichita State Saturday night.

The Indians rolled to a 10-0 season last year and en route earned the college division national championship and their third straight Southland Conference title.

"It's all to be done over again," said Davidson, who took over as head coach last winter when Bennie Ellender moved on to Tulane.

"You have this thought in the back of your mind that once they get on the field they won't perform but, on the other hand, knowing the players and knowing their own personal feelings it's extremely difficult for me to believe that they'll become complacent," Davidson said.

ASU shocked Wichita last year 53-14 and this may work against the Indians.

"The score will have more to do with Wichita mentally," Davidson said. "They'll get ready to play us. They were still playing the Texas A&M game when we went out there last year. We were unknown."

"The day of the easy ball game is over," he said. "Anyone can beat you. We had some breaks last year to go unbeaten."

Davidson said he had shown the Indians the film of last year's victory over Wichita.

"I pointed out to them that we scored 34 points in eight minutes and that just doesn't happen every week," he said.

"The furthest thing from our mind is that it will be anything like last year."

Davidson saw the Wheatshockers last week when they lost 41-7 to Texas A&M.

"They had a chance to go in down 7-0 at the half against a real good Texas A&M football team," Davidson said. "But A&M took advantage of a fumble recovery and an interception to score two easy touchdowns."

"Texas A&M was leading by three touchdowns at the half because of Wichita's mistakes," he said. "If they don't make the mistakes, it's a danged good football game."

Here's an insight into how good ASU can be — Davidson's biggest problem is finding a replacement for kicking specialist Bobby Gentry.

Quarterback James Hamilton has been a winner for three years. Hamilton, who has

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1971 National Football League season opens Sunday and it could very well open with two major upsets—the topping of the Super Bowl champion Baltimore Colts and the San Francisco 49ers, Western Division defenders in the National Conference.

With eight new coaches on the sidelines, bringing with them their philosophies and strategic design; as many as 40 rookies scheduled to be in starting line-ups, and several clubs still thinking about their starting quarterback any thing can happen.

What will happen, it says here, as your peerless pro picker opens the season—without benefit of a six-game exhibition warm-up—is that the Colts will lose to the New York Jets and the 49ers will be upset by the Atlanta Falcons.

The reasoning follows, in a rundown of the entire 13-game schedule that lists 12 Sunday openers and Monday's nationally televised clash—9 p.m., EDT via ABC—between the Minnesota Vikings and Detroit Lions.

New York Jets 20, Baltimore 14—The figuring here is that the Jets' defense, best in the AFC last year, can stifle the Colts, with either Earl Morrall or Johnny Unitas at quarterback, while Joe Namath's replacement, Al Woodall, uses the short passing game and the running of rookie John Riggins to get enough points on the board.

Atlanta 27, San Francisco 24—Falcons' Coach Norm Van Brocklin, a strategic manipulator, he had all year to prepare for this one and should have some surprises to spring. Atlanta defense, led by end Claude Humphrey, now among best. But there will be John Brodie's arm to contend with.

Minnesota 31, Detroit 21—The Vikings have lost only four games in two years and could be even stronger this season with the acquisition of quarterback Norm Snead making them more air-minded. The Lions, who finished second to Minnesota in NFC Central last year, have been having defensive problems.

Dallas 35, Buffalo 20—The Bills have quarterback Dennis Shaw and running back O.J. Simpson. But whatever the Bills have, the NFC East champion Cowboys have more.

Watch revitalized Dallas running back Calvin Hill.

Kansas City 24, San Diego 17—Len Dawson is on target for Chiefs with 70.4 completion mark in pre-season and has new receiver in Elmo Wright. But it's the Chiefs' defense that will get the job done.

Cincinnati 28, Philadelphia 24—This marks the first of five games for Eagles against last year's division winners, and the first loss. The AFC Central champion Bengals will get Paul Brown rolling in his 37th year of coaching.

Oakland 34, New England 10—AFC West champion Raiders, minus top receiver Warren Wells, will roll over the Patriots and probably will do much the same to their touted rookie quarterback, Jim Plunkett.

Miami 24, Denver 20—The Dolphins have two many weapons with Bob Griese throwing to Paul Warfield and rookie Otto Stowe and running Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick into the line against a Denver team re-fitted through 16 trades.

Los Angeles 35, New Orleans

slimmed down from 212 to 198, is quicker than ever and his passing Wednesday night had the ASU coaches standing around grinning at each other.

"It was unreal," Davidson said. "I've never seen him throw like that. He was really humming it."

Davidson also says Hamilton's increased quickness puts more pressure on the outside defenders.

Kearney Blalack, a sophomore flanker, will keep the defense honest deep with his exceptional speed and should draw double coverage. If he does, tailbacks Calvin Harrell (225) and Johnny Carr (180) will hammer away at the middle.

There's no reason to believe they won't be as effective as they have been in the past.

British in Lead for Ryder Cup

By PAUL LEBAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Youth and the prospect of continued cool weather stood in Great Britain's immediate favor as Ryder Cup golf matches resumed with four-ball competition over Old Warson Country Club's sprawling course today.

But a leader in an American try for a comeback, Jack Nicklaus, hinted strongly his team's best may be saved for the last in the international test.

"I think traditionally we never seem to do as well in four-somes," the powerfully built Nicklaus said in reference to Thursday tests resulting in a 4½-3½ deficit the Americans carried into today's eight matches.

"We just don't seem to play it enough," he added. "Where we should do better and where we always have in the past is with singles."

At least the first part of Nicklaus' contention was borne out when Britain, paced by brilliant shots off the clubs of young Tony Jacklin, ran up a 3-1 lead in Thursday's Scotch foursomes.

The brash Britishers continued to pour it on with a 2 and 1 victory by youngsters Harry Bannerman and Bernard Gallacher before a second victory by Arnold Palmer and Gardner Dickinson stemmed the assault.

Nicklaus, rallying from what he termed an "incredibly poor" morning round, teamed with J.C. Snead to trim Britain's lead to 4-3.

America's best in the biennial tests appeared to have earned a 4-4 deadlock until the muscular Jacklin, uncanny with his wedges, chipped in from 50 feet on the 18th hole of the final match to forge a tie for himself and Brian Huggett against gim-gery Lee Trevino and Mason Rudolph.

Trevino and Rudolph were to take the course again this morning in leading off best-ball matches, and the weather was of no small concern to the non-playing captain of either team.

"This certainly is the kind of weather our players favor," said an ebullient Eric Brown, whose Britishers gained the lead through opening-day matches a first time on American soil.

Only half-jokingly, U.S. captain Jay Hebert declared, "I think the weather's been in their favor. I'm not squawking, but I don't think our boys are used to playing in these conditions."

Steady rain early Thursday delayed play one hour and 15 minutes and kept morning temperatures below 60 degrees. Today's forecast was for continued unseasonably cool temperatures and more rain.

"It's just like home," said a smiling Gallacher, a 22-year-old who teamed with fellow Scotsman Bannerman to upset veterans Billy Casper and Miller Barber 2 and 1.

17-Tommy Prothro makes debut as Ram's coach and quarterback Roman Gabriel will give him a big send-off before the schedule gets rougher. Saints just too weak, despite new quarterback Archie Manning.

St. Louis 28, Washington 27—Cardinals' new coach, Bob Holway, gets edge on Redskins' new coach, George Allen. Might have been different if Washington hadn't lost quarterback Sonny Jurgensen.

Pittsburgh 24, Chicago 10—The Steelers have their passer now in a matured Terry Bradshaw. The Bears still are looking, and may also only get limited duty from running back Gale Sayers.

Houston 21, Cleveland 20—Another new coach match-up—Oilers' Ed Hughes vs. Browns' Nick Skorich. Houston may be just a bit stronger defensively.

Green Bay 27, New York Giants 17—New Packer Coach Dan Devine may not enjoy many victories but he should enjoy this one against a club that went through the exhibition season 0-6.

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off. Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED for it, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

HE PICKED A WATERMELON

Dear Helen: What happens when the male ego is thwarted, crushed and destroyed? For nearly 25 years, this has happened to me. This is what my wife has done: 1. She knows more than anybody else; never concedes that she is wrong. 2. She eats secretly until she weighs over 225 pounds, then says fatness runs in her family. 3. She doesn't bathe regularly, and is unkempt in her dress; the type people don't stand close to. 4. She is a poor housekeeper, using the excuse that she works part time. The children and I do most of the housework. 5. She always wants to know the subject of conversation when the children and I are talking. 6. She resents the money I spend on my yard. (I don't drink, run around, play golf, or buy expensive personal items.) 7. She nags constantly, and reverses what I tell the children, who incidentally, are all teenagers. 8. She's the queen bee and won't let anyone forget it. Always bossing, she never considers the wishes of others in the family. I'm not interested in anyone else. I don't want a broken home. But what's a man to do? — DEGRADED AND DOWN-TRODDEN Dear D and D: You've described a woman so sure of her queenship that she forgets rulers can be deposed. Let her know you can and will walk out, if she doesn't shape up—and not just figure-wise! — H. P.S. Which means YOU'D better shapeup, courage-wise. Dear Helen: Is it permissible for a divorced man to call himself a bachelor? The word "divorce" is an unpleasant reminder of a broken contract. I'm unhappy enough without rubbing my nose in it. — DISPLACED Dear Dis: You may call yourself "single," "free," "unattached" but, technically speaking, a once-married man can never be a bachelor again. (Try getting used to the word. It hurts worse when you won't face facts.) — H. Dear Helen: I'm not generally a writer-to-columns, but I must respond to those anti-bikini-underpants mothers. What's with people who see something licentious in every new style? I'm a married woman and I love bikini panties. Like hip huggers, they're more comfortable, and I've never gotten my skin caught in a zipper yet. Something no one has mentioned yet is that bikini underwear is great for pregnant women. Remember the bad old days when your panties' elastic crept up and up, and finally nestled just under your arm pits? (If the nylon stretched that far.) —FOR THEM Dear Readers: Who would think that bikini panties would bring more reader-response than such noble subjects as women's lib, ecology, and "the Jesus people"? "To wear or not to wear" outdistanced almost every question on my "interestmeter" last month—except one: "Are girls unphotogenic nowadays because they wear less lipstick and more handgown hair?" Must be the summer bla-a-as. —H. This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of Hope Star. Copyright, 1971, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

He Must Learn to Cook for Himself

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I am 83 years old and in very good health, weigh 160, same as I weighed 70 years ago. Eight months ago my housekeeper had a stroke and I was left by myself to do my cooking, not being able to find a housekeeper.

I am no cook and began having burning and itching on my side below my armpit and was told it was caused by poor diet. Can you give me a diet for a man who has to cook for himself? I am a truck gardener on a farm and still work my own garden. What I want to know is how a bachelor can cook and stay well.

Dear Reader — Don't worry, it isn't hard to cook. You might consider, though, boarding out one meal a day. Take some type of multiple vitamin tablet every day. True, with a balanced diet you wouldn't need them, but then again you may not be getting all the vitamins you need at first. It's good insurance. I recommend this to all older people who no longer eat as they should. A good variety of commercial soups are available and you can follow the directions on the container without any trouble. The only one that gives me pause is cream of mushroom soup, which is higher in fat than most others.

You can surely grill a steak under the broiler in your oven. That's pretty simple. I also recommend boiling beef. Get a good lean roast and remove most of the fat. Put it in a covered roasting pan and cover the meat with water. Cut up some potatoes, carrots and, if you like, an onion or two and put them in the roaster. Put the whole thing in the oven (covered) and cook at an oven temperature around 350 degrees until the meat is tender. Now you will have meat, potatoes and carrots. The broth from the water, meat and vegetables is also good. Season to your own taste.

You should have plenty of fresh vegetables from your truck patch and raw vegetables — tomatoes, peppers, lettuce and radishes. Most other vegetables are easily prepared by boiling. You can buy your bread and low-fat milk, fresh fruit and you may in time branch out to roast poultry. All you need is a little confidence and you can cook a good meal for yourself in no time.

The advantage of boiled meat is that you can reheat the whole dish for another meal. Or you can divide the dish into small packages for the freezer and heat the packages one at a time for subsequent meals.

NO SOLUTION Seen in China

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The head of a Quaker service organization says that President Nixon will not find a solution in Peking to the war in Indochina. Bronson Clark said on his return to Philadelphia Wednesday from a three-week visit to Red China that the Chinese regard the withdrawal of American troops and settlement of the war as "priority No. 1, even

WIN AT BRIDGE

Bid Not for All Slams

Table with 4 columns: NORTH, WEST, EAST, SOUTH (D). It shows card holdings and bidding information for a bridge game.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

You shouldn't use Blackwood when you hold a worthless doubleton. You also should not use it when you are void of a suit. With that kind of hand, you want to explore the slam by some other method.

One method is the grand slam force invented by Ely Culbertson almost 40 years ago. In its simplest form, you use five no-trump to ask your partner to bid seven if he holds two of the three top honors in trumps.

South had a perfect hand for this bid after North first bid a heart and then gave a double jump preference bid from clubs to diamonds.

East was tempted to double for a heart lead, but the grand slam force indicated that South didn't hold any hearts, so East just passed.

The grand slam made easily but, strangely enough, it was a bad result. The game was team of four and at the other table North bid six diamonds at some stage of the proceedings. East doubled for a heart lead.

South paused to perform some calculations and found that six diamonds redoubled with an overtrick would be worth 2,180 points, while seven diamonds bid and made would only be 2,140. South also realized that if he went from six to seven he would not get doubled, so South proceeded to redouble six and take the 40-point profit.

Agnew Has Enhanced Standing

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer
SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew may have enhanced his political standing among Republican governors with his low-keyed performance at the 63rd National Governors Conference. Agnew had stirred controversy at two earlier conferences of the governors. But this time his profile was low, his tone drew liberal GOP praise, and he went away as the conference choice to take full charge of their liaison with Washington. There was no talk of any movement to dump Agnew from the 1972 GOP ticket. Only one GOP governor said he thought Agnew should be replaced, and he declined to be quoted by name. "I don't know there's any indication he isn't going to be the candidate, unless it is by his own choice," said Gov. Ronald Reagan of California. Reagan said President Nixon and Agnew would present the strongest ticket the GOP could field in 1972. "I wouldn't have any trouble supporting Agnew on the basis of 1971," said Gov. Tom McCall of Oregon, who had been sharply critical of Agnew's campaign tone and style in 1970. When Agnew defended his campaign in sharp terms at a conference of Republican governors in Sun Valley, Idaho, McCall termed it "a nasty, bigoted little speech." But McCall said he found a new tone in Agnew's San Juan appearance. In his speech in San Juan Monday, Agnew called for a positive approach to the administration's new economic policy, and an end to "petty bickering. . . and partisan jockeying." "It's a new Agnew," said Gov. Daniel J. Evans of Washington. McCall termed it "sort of a reinstallation of the old Agnew, the old Gov. Agnew." Agnew was governor of Maryland when Nixon chose him to run for vice president. "I'm a Nixon-Agnew man," said Gov. Linwood A. Holton of Virginia. "A good constructive speech like this one helps." Agnew himself joked about speculation that Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally, a Democrat and former Texas Governor, might supplant him on the Nixon ticket next year.

GETTING AROUND in Rome's notoriously snarled traffic requires some compromises with modern ways for the city's traditionally robed clerics, such as this dignified father's motorbike.

Former Residents Retire Here

Theron H. King, who in March completed eight years as superintendent of the Baptist Children's Home, retired August first. He and his wife have moved to her home town, Hope. She was the former Frances Huntley.

King succeeded the late Otho S. Williams in 1963. Before that he was pastor at FBC West Frankfort for 20 years. He THRON H. KING served two years as president of the IBSA, chairman of the benevolence committee, and member of the state missions committee. He also was on the S.S. Board 6 years and the Radio-TV Commission 3 years.

In 1970, the child-care department ministered to a 120 children, largest yearly total in the 52-year history. It is licensed as an agency for care of children in residence, and as a placement agency for foster homes and adoptions.

The Children's Home budget for 1970-71 is over $270,000. The ministry is not supported by the Cooperative Program. One of the major sources is the annual Mother's Day offering, which will be received in Baptist churches, May 9. This year's goal is $40,000.

During King's administration, the home has added a business manager, a residential manager, a director of social services and a staff psychologist. Children live in residence-type facilities, with a couple as house parents. They no longer come as permanent residents. Last year, 37 were returned to parents or relatives.

Before coming to Illinois, King served South Highland Church, Bessemer, Ala., following his father as pastor.

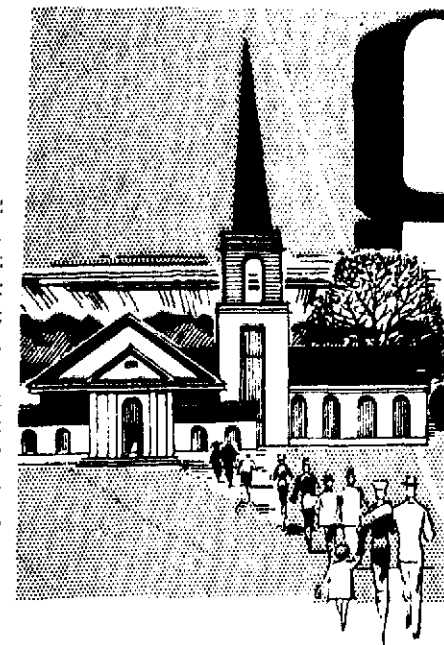

The Kings have one son, James on the staff of John C. Calhoun junior college, Decatur, Ala. A niece whom they reared, Mrs. Don Brown, is on the staff of William Jewel College, Liberty, Mo. She is the former Helen Huntley. Mrs. King served as Illinois WMU president for 5 years.

When Bart Starr barks his signals for the Green Bay Packers, the modern football world listens and moves into action. That's because Bart Starr is a disciplined, dedicated believer. He believes in an Omnipotent Power. He is a member of the Administrative Board of the First United Methodist Church. He extends his religion into all his world. He believes in America and Democracy. Comparatively small in a world of giants, he worked and studied his way to the top. Bart Starr believes in people, his great team mates, his family, his neighbors, his friends, his community. Generous and understanding, he is active in dozens of civic and charitable causes.

A churchman and a real man, Bart Starr turns to ashes all those reservations about churches being for sissies. He believes in himself. He is brilliant and tough on the field, generous and sympathetic in every day life. He says faith helped him lead the Packers to two super bowl victories and two all time pro passing records. He puts his passes in the hands of his belief and his receivers. Yes, belief calls the signals for Bart Starr. It will call them for you, too, at your place of worship this week.
